One Globe – One Network – ABAS

International ERP Prospect Seminar for midsize companies

October 13th 2010 in Budapest

Invitation

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

The world is changing, and new opportunities are appearing every day. Globalization, once the domain for only large companies, is now presenting new markets for growth for small to mid market companies.

As more companies in the mid market are recognizing the value of globalization, the ability to build new markets without significant IT investment is enabling growth, profitability, and competitiveness.

ABAS has a proven methodology that ensures your ERP project is successfully implemented. By understanding the implications for organizational structure, business processes, IT infrastructure, people and information standardization, ABAS can ensure an efficient and effective solution.

ABAS increases transparency and optimizes the flow of information between all global businesses, aligns global business functions and manages the connections to outside stakeholders.

Embrace change with abas ERP

Meet CEOs and key users from global companies who have successfully implemented abas ERP in multiple countries, stayed within budget, and received a great value for their business.

Global Benefits of ABAS include:

1. Consolidated Global Reporting
2. Rules for Standardization of Key Business Processes
